

Title of Progress Report: Mapping the Hidden Treasures of Apia

Principal Researcher: Lori Sciusco, CSS

Date of Submission: November 2014 (final report)

Report

---

Summary

- Identification of key sites – completed
- Consultation with the Pulenu'u and receipt of letter of support – completed
- Archival Research:

This project was designed to be carried out with the participation of students enrolled in the Archaeology & Cultural Heritage Course, HSA280 which was offered in Semester 1. As part of the course, students were taught basic research methods and were required to undertake primary and secondary research at the Nelson Library, the Pacific Collection (NUS Library) as well as the Savavali newspaper.

The research has been completed by the students.

Additional research is required to be carried out by the Principal Researcher in order to validate and confirm the data collected by students.

This is yet to be completed.

Other Tasks-

- GPS locations of the key sites – yet to be completed
- Final Digital Photos of the key sites – yet to be completed
- First Draft & Final version of the self-guided map- yet to be completed
- Outline of material for the CSS website – yet to be completed
- Draft Progress Report – due end of September
- Final Progress Report- due end of November
- It is anticipated that once the Principal Researchers commitments to the Samoa III Conference have been completed that the outstanding tasks will be completed by the end of November.
- No funds have as yet been used due to a lack of time. It is anticipated that the necessary equipment will be purchased by the end of September.

Lori Sciusco

Principal Researcher

CSS