

THE SAMOA GUARDIAN

Registered for transmission through the Post as a Newspaper

APIA, THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1929

After the release of High Chief Tamasese, who is shown above being greeted by the Hon. O. F. Nelson and the Rev. A. J. Greenwood, vicar of St. Albans.

is ; what has become of the pledged word of England, Germany, and America under the Berlin Treaty ?

Another question arises. Allowing for argument's sake, that the Berlin Convention was justifiable, it made Western Samoa no more than a PROTECTORATE under Germany. Consequently, at the conclusion of the war, when the Powers were busy carving up Ger-

Tamasese Released

WELCOME FROM FOLLOWERS
AT GOAL GATES

Cheering In Queen Street

(Auckland Sun, 4/6/29)

was in prison, he was not allowed to receive any political communications. Today, there is a huge pile of correspondence from Mau leaders in Samoa waiting the chief's attention.

Tamasese said that he will not be able to make a statement until he is fully acquainted with Samoan affairs.

have ole on ned in g the
of Sa-
uddle.
ut the
wrong
ust be
gaged
rgung
try to living
d it ac-
from ch.the view of ily in his re-
cered
is in ere it

Samoa,
r from
are in uddle.
y, the
might e only
backs.

colonies
f under red the George,
Zealand
on berdinary
is, and aland is
at King
a party